

SAVE THE DATE:
Community Support Network
2020-21 'Virtual' Transition Institute

January 11 - 13, 2021

*This year's conference includes keynote presentations featuring
Dan Habib, Award winning documentary producer and
Jane St. John, of "Charting the Life Course"*

The Community Support Network is pleased once again to offer our annual conference on post-secondary transition covering topics ranging from employment options, inclusive college programs, social and recreational programs, systems navigation, self-advocacy, policy issues, and more.

Dan Habib's new documentary, Who is GNAO1?, will be featured with a panel discussion.

In order to be sensitive to work, family commitments, and 'zoom fatigue' the conference will take place over three days.

Please stay tuned for program and registration materials.

This workshop will be held via ZOOM.

The Community Support Network (CSN) at Westchester Institute for Human Development is the Hudson Valley's resource for individuals with disabilities, their families, and the professionals supporting them.

Our experts are knowledgeable about all the disability systems serving individuals with disabilities across the lifespan and are available to help YOU.

We provide resources, training, direct services, and support and guidance to families, schools, agencies, and individuals themselves on disability related issues and topics.
